Elsbethen

Tel. +43 (0)662/629165

- Glaserbach Gorge Run: circuit for runners in good shape; length 8.5 km, elevation change: 200 m; Starts next to the River Salzach at the Gasthof Rechenwirt. It then takes a left along the banks of the Klausbach as far as the main road to Hallein; cross this road and then continue following the Klausbach to the right, making your way gradually uphill through Glaserbach Gorge as far as the bridge which crosses the Klausbach. Now make your way to the left, uphill along the forest path as far as the Mitterwies farm, then back downhill to the left through the graben – keeping to the field path and parallel to the Gaisberg road as far as the Vorderfager farm. Now make your way for about 500 meters along the Gaisberg road until you reach the next farm on the left-hand side, at which point you will take a left and head downhill along a forest path to Glaserbach. Cross the Hallein road and follow the banks of the Klausbach back to where you started. Due to the low temperatures within the Glaserbach Gorge, this route comes highly recommended even in hot temperatures at the height of summer.
- Schwaitlalm Run: Great run even for kids. Length: 2 km; Elevation change: 30 meters
- Start at the “Schwaitlalm” Hotel, then via the road out to the Mitterwies Farm, where you will take a left and make your way along a forest path down to the Glaserbach Gorge. Once there, immediately take the footpath to the left which climbs uphill to the Ramsau inn. Now head left along the street and back to where you set out.
- Ramsau Run: For well-conditioned runners. Length: 5 km; Elevation change: 80 meters; Starts out from the Ramsau Inn. First along the road towards Wiestal. At the first intersection, you will take a right and run towards the Glaserbach Gorge. The route now follows the paved road, passes the end of Glaserbach Gorge, crosses a bridge over the Klausbach, and climbs gently uphill to the Schönau Farm. At the subsequent Hirsteig Farm, (the road goes between the houses), you will turn right and follow a footpath which drops down to the Glaserbach Gorge. In the gorge, you will keep right, cross the bridge and then make a half-left onto the footpath (not the forest path). You will then follow this footpath, making your way gradually uphill to where you set out.
- Elsbethen Bridge Run: Loop for well-conditioned runners. Length: 10 km; Elevation change: 10 meters; Starts out from the “Überfuhr” inn (Haslach), then makes its way upstream to the Urstein Dam. Here you will cross the Salzach and head back downstream along the far bank as far as the Glaserbach bridge. Now, cross back over the Salzach and make your way upstream to the Rechenwirt Inn and back to the start.

- Filzmoos - UNICEF Herzerlweg
Village square in Filzmoos – roundabout – road in the direction of Eben, first road to the left down to the valley station of the Papageno Lift. From there, the promenade leads off to the right, past the playground and along the edge of the meadow.
Tip: Sit down on one of the benches along the way and enjoy the view of the village.
- Hachau Loop
From Hotel-Restaurant Zeferer, you'll make your way to the left along the path running right by Haus Bergwelt, crossing a small bridge and following a small cart path to the Schaidlbauern farm. At the Schaidlhof, our path takes us to the right and down to the forest's edge, then on through high forest to the intersection for the reservoir. You'll keep right and make your way along the old Hauchauweg and return to Hotel-Restaurant Zeferer.
- Filzmoos – Pilzhof – Wallehenhof – Hofalmen Nature Trail towards Filzmoos
From the village square in Filzmoos, you'll follow the road towards the Hofalmen. At the second intersection, keep straight, cross the cattle guard, continuing past the old mill, before making a right uphill to the Pilzhof and the Pilzstube. Once at the Löckenwaldgut, you will again find yourself on the Leopichl supply road. Follow the road past the Löckenwaldgut as far as the Wallehenhof; directly below the Wallehenhof the hiking path leads in the direction of the Hofalmen. At the end of this, the nature and hiking path turns left in towards Filzmoos, follow this until you are below the toll station and continue on towards Filzmoos.

Unken

Tel. +43 (0)6588/8321

- U1: Village Loop: easy, 2.65km, elevation change 30m

The short village loop through Unken is generally paved, well lit after dark and ideal regardless of the time of day, between appointments, for returning runners. Also a great run in winter. Begins in the direction of the church, followed by a short stretch on natural surface, along the “History Trail”, across the River Saalach and back to the village square.

- U2: Allianz Loop: intermediate, 7.50km, elevation change 145m

Variety-packed, undulating route, truly enjoyable and along the “History Trail”. Begins uphill towards the Kirchenwirt, past the Heritage Museum and Schloss Oberrain, then along the bike path. After a peaceful forest stretch, on the bike path back to the Schütterbad, past the Kinderhotel and returning to our original starting point.

- U3: Sparkassen Loop: difficult, 5.45km, elevation change: 250m

This challenging route is quite a proposition even for experienced runners and walkers. Begins on a paved surface and climbs gently, continuing uphill along a forestry road. Passing by the Weather Cross, now a narrow, steep climb on a natural surface to a chapel, where you are rewarded by incredible panoramic views of the Saalach Valley. Downhill along forestry and paved roads, taking the “Feldweg nach Unken” back to the start.

- U4: Kinderhotel Post Loop: intermediate, 6.60km, elevation change 105m

Along the intermediate-length, gently undulating Kinderhotel Post Loop, you will find yourself running through the untouched countryside of the Saalach Valley. Follow the Gsengsteig trail across meadows in bloom, then through forest as far as the border. The flat gravel path takes us past the power station, along the Josefsallee next to the River Saalach, past the Kinderhotel and back to the village square.

- U5: Adeg Maier Loop: intermediate, 7.80km, total elevation change 110m
The green Adeg Maier Loop is a very special nature experience. We start out on a paved surface to the recreation center. On virtually flat, compacted natural pathways, climbing through forest in the direction of Aschau Gorge, past Reith Chapel and downhill to the River Saalach. Here in this pristine natural setting, you are accompanied by rocky hillsides on your right and wild waters on your left.
- U6: Löffler Loop: difficult, 14.30km, total elevation change 185m
Long, challenging route for experienced runners and walkers, and for those with high athletic ambitions. The Löffler Loop starts out flat along the banks of the Saalach, passing the Schütterbad and taking you through the incomparable Saalachtal countryside. In Au you pass the chapel, making your way uphill to Reith and then back downhill to the Saalach, passing by the Schütterbad once more and returning to Unken.

Nordic-Walking Opportunities & Coaching

Nordic Walking – that is, walking, stretching and strength exercises with poles – is a form of training for the whole body. In the spring of 1997, Finland introduced Nordic Walking as a summer training program for its top cross-country and biathlon athletes. Through the use of poles with specially developed hand straps, a form of training was developed for the whole body, exercising both the heart and circulatory system, as well as 90% of the entire musculature.

Nordic-Walking Arena in Altenmarkt-Zauchensee, Tel. +43 (0)6452/5511

- Eckwald Loop: length: 5.2 km (difficulty level: intermediate)
Trail description: The Eckwald Loop leads through enchanting Eckwald forest located in the south of Altenmarkt-Zauchensee. From the starting point, a slightly uphill path leads to the Eckwald. The loop path then eventually brings us back to the starting point.
- Enns Loop: length: 5 km (difficulty level: easy)
Trail description: The Ennsweg path leads around the idyllic town of Altenmarkt, alongside the Enns, on the historical tracks of the Romans, nestled in magical mountain scenery. From the starting point, you will go along the main street to just before the autobahn underpass, and to the Enns river. Past forests and fields, you will return to the starting point after the third bridge over the Enns.
- Feuersang-Koppen Loop: length: 5.1 km (difficulty level: difficult)
Trail description: The Feuersang-Koppen Loop leads over the Schlatterberg through the forest to Berggasthof Winterbauer. Then, you will return to the starting point along the forested Feuersang ridge with a slight descent.

Nature.Fitness.Park® Lungau - Unternberg

2 clearly marked routes totaling 10.6 km in length through pristine countryside, The starting point for both trails is the village square, then we head out as far as the Neustatt bridge and follow the left bank of the Mur River to Neggerndorf – this is where the two routes split.

The Ötzsteig Route 5.3 km, elevation change 105 m, takes us to the right across the Mur bridge, climbing gently through the forest, at the foot of the Schwarzenberg, returning us to Unternberg and back to the center of town.

For the Lärchensteig Route, 5.3 km, elevation change 140 m, we first cross the main highway and then head uphill. Half way up the Mitterberg, a trail leads us to the Mitterbergweg, which we follow down towards the valley and back to our starting point. Many other Nordic Walking opportunities along the marked hiking paths. Info & Pole Rentals: Unternberg Tourist Office, Tel. +43 (0)6474/6214-18
